Chairman's Review Report

Chairman's Review Report

As we reflect on the past financial year, I am both proud and invigorated by the strides our company has made. This period has been transformative for us, marked by significant achievements, challenges overcome and a reaffirmation of our commitment to delivering exceptional value to our clients and partners worldwide.

Our commitment to flexibility and customization is demonstrated through all our product offerings and their ability to handle complex multi-country and multi-jurisdictional requirements. Whether it's our core finance and leasing platform Ascent, our API-first products or our digital retail and mobility solutions, our technology is designed to support diverse business environments and adapt to evolving needs. We also continue to offer a range of professional services as well as cloud solutions and services in partnership with Amazon Web Services (AWS).

Otoz, our fully digital, white-label platform for digital auto retail and mobility orchestration, was built in our Lahore, Pakistan office via our Unity R&D lab. The product has witnessed great success in the United States, with some customers that have already signed up for and are utilizing our Otoz platform. Following this, subsequently, we foresee more interest generated for this product in the North American region. We will continue to develop the roadmap for Otoz – for which the potential is vast as we continue to witness traction and anticipate interest via further client engagements in the coming years.

We also foresee continued interest in our suite of API-first, SaaS-based products – Appex Now. These products were developed specifically for the global credit, finance and leasing industry. Their availability through flexible, subscription-based pricing and lightning-fast onboarding has already resulted in these products being signed up for, and subsequently deployed by various financial institutions in the United Kingdom.

This year, our company had undertaken a strategic restructuring to enhance operational efficiency and reduce costs. By reducing the size of our workforce, we have achieved significant cost savings without any disruption to our operations. This adjustment has allowed us to maintain our commitment to delivering exceptional value and performance, and maintaining our position as a leading technology solutions provider primarily to the global asset finance and leasing industry.

Despite the reduction in staff, we have ensured that we have retained our best performing employees, who continue to be well-supported both financially and non-financially. We have implemented measures to enhance their job satisfaction, provide robust benefits and offer career development opportunities. Our goal is to foster a positive work environment where our global team feels valued and motivated.

Our focus remains on sustaining high operational standards while nurturing our talented workforce. We believe this approach will drive long-term success and maintain our position as a leading force in the industry. At NETSOL, we are deeply committed to the continuous development of our employees. We recognize that investing in our team's growth is crucial for both their personal career advancement and our overall success.

To this end, we continue to offer comprehensive training programs designed to enhance skillsets and keep our staff at the forefront of industry trends and technologies. Through professional development and training, and by fostering a supportive and dynamic work environment, we empower our employees to deliver exceptional results and contribute to our ongoing success.

Our company has embarked on a journey to establish itself as a center of excellence in AI through Project Optimus. Our dedicated team of AI architects, data scientists and engineers are singularly focused on developing cutting-edge AI solutions. Project Optimus is designed to enhance our internal software development processes, making them more efficient and effective. By harnessing advanced AI technologies, we aim to drive innovation and optimize our existing offerings. This strategic focus on AI not only promises to elevate our internal capabilities, but also ensures that we continue to deliver top-tier solutions that meet the evolving needs of our clients.

NETSOL is poised to be recognized as a leader in AI initiatives by proactively setting the standard rather than following market trends. Over the past two years, we have diligently built a solid foundation in AI and ML, focusing on creating a strong infrastructure that benefits our organization at a fundamental level. We have concentrated on developing and integrating AI solutions that deliver genuine value and efficiency. Our strategic approach has already yielded several successful proof of concepts within the company, demonstrating our commitment to harnessing AI's transformative potential.

As we continue to scale and refine our AI capabilities, we are also extending our expertise to clients embarking on their own AI journeys. We are actively supporting them in embracing and adapting to AI technologies, positioning ourselves as thought leaders in the field. Our goal is to foster meaningful engagements with these clients, guiding them through the evolving landscape of AI and its implications for their businesses. We anticipate that these efforts will translate into substantial revenue opportunities moving ahead.

Innovation has been at the heart of our strategy this year. We have continued to invest heavily in R&D to ensure that our technology remains at the cutting-edge. Our focus on AI-driven solutions has enabled us to offer powerful analytics, seamless integration capabilities and advanced automation features that are transforming how businesses operate.

I would like to extend my heartfelt gratitude to our clients, partners and stakeholders for their unwavering support and trust. Your confidence in our technology and our team has been a driving force behind our success.

At the heart of our success is our people. This year, we have continued to cultivate a culture of excellence, innovation and collaboration. Our team's dedication and expertise have been instrumental in driving our achievements and maintaining our position as an industry leader. I want to acknowledge the hard work and dedication of our global workforce who are essentially the NETSOL family. Your commitment to excellence and innovation is the cornerstone of our achievements and a source of inspiration for us all.

"By harnessing advanced AI technologies, we aim to drive innovation and optimize our existing offerings. This strategic focus on AI not only promises to elevate our internal capabilities, but also ensures that we continue to deliver top-tier solutions that meet the evolving needs of our clients."

As we conclude another successful year, I extend my deepest gratitude to our board members for their unwavering support, insightful guidance and dedication. Your strategic vision and commitment have been instrumental in navigating our company through a dynamic landscape and achieving our goals. Your collective expertise and leadership continue to drive our success and inspire excellence. Thank you for your invaluable contributions and for standing by us as we advance towards a promising future.

In closing, the fiscal year has been a period of remarkable progress and success for our company. We have achieved significant milestones, expanded our offerings and continued to deliver exceptional value to our clients across the globe. As we look to the future, we are excited about the opportunities that lie ahead and are committed to continuing our journey of growth and innovation.

Looking ahead, as we move into the next fiscal period, we remain focused on our strategic priorities and committed to driving further growth and innovation. Our roadmap includes expanding our technology offerings, enhancing our global presence and continuing to deliver value to our clients through exceptional service and cutting-edge solutions.

We are excited about the opportunities that lie ahead and confident in our ability to achieve our goals. This has been a year of growth and our vision for the future is clear - to remain at the forefront of delivering unrivalled technology solutions.

It is with deep sorrow that I write about losing our Ex-Chairman Emeritus - Shahab Ghauri. As the original visionary and co-founder of NETSOL Technologies in 1995, Shahab's contributions were instrumental in shaping the company's direction for the decades to come. We will always remain indebted to him, his support as a seed investor and his unwavering belief in our mission. We will forever be grateful for his pioneering vision and commitment. As we move forward, we remain dedicated to advancing his legacy and continuing the mission he so passionately began

CEO's Message

As we close another fiscal year, I am both proud and humbled to present our annual report, reflecting a year of significant achievements and strategic advancements at NETSOL Technologies. Serving as a trusted partner and technology provider primarily to the global asset finance and leasing industry, our mission has always been to deliver transformative solutions that empower our clients to navigate an increasingly complex and dynamic landscape.

The financial services sector continues to undergo rapid evolution, driven by technological advancements, regulatory changes and shifting market demands. At NETSOL, we have embraced these changes as opportunities to enhance our offerings and deliver value to our clients. This year, we have made remarkable strides in advancing our technology solutions, expanding our market presence and deepening our relationships with key stakeholders.

We are thrilled to conclude the financial year 2023-2024 on a high note. The efforts invested throughout the past year are now yielding impressive results, marked by significant top-line growth and an improved bottom line. This success can be attributed to two key factors. Firstly, a number of initiatives taken in the past few years, including the introduction of flexible, subscription-based pricing for our solutions, have proven highly effective. This shift has delivered substantial positive outcomes, enhancing our ability to attain new customers. Secondly, our cost-cutting measures have also bought desired results. These measures involved not only reducing the size of our workforce, but also meticulously evaluating and reducing costs across all areas of our business.

As we look ahead, NETSOL's management is optimistic about the upcoming fiscal year 2024-2025. We anticipate new opportunities to further increase our revenue, driven by the addition of several new customers acquired during the past fiscal year, which will contribute to helping us bring in further new business.

Throughout this fiscal year, we dedicated significant time, energy and focus to marketing our products and services in the North American and European regions. We expect these efforts to continue delivering positive results in these markets in the years to come. Further, in line with our growth strategy, we have made significant progress in expanding our market presence. We have entered new geographical markets, forged strategic partnerships and explored opportunities in emerging segments of the financial services industry. These efforts have not only broadened our reach, but have also positioned us as a leading player in the global market.

Our core focus has been on leveraging cutting-edge technology to address the pressing challenges faced by financial institutions. We have continued to innovate across our suite of solutions and services, integrating AI, advanced analytics and other technologies to provide our clients with robust tools for managing risk, improving operational efficiency, enhancing customer experiences and enabling them to futureproof their operations.

We continue investing in the development of new technologies and solutions that will address emerging trends and challenges in the financial services sector. Our R&D teams are working tirelessly to explore advancements in areas including AI and ML, ensuring that we are well-positioned to offer cutting-edge solutions that meet the evolving needs of our clients.

As an IT powerhouse and as a responsible corporate entity, we recognize the importance of sustainability and ethical practices in our operations. This year, we continued to make significant strides in integrating sustainability into our business practices and promoting social responsibility. Our commitment to reducing our environmental footprint, supporting community initiatives and upholding the highest standards of ethical conduct continues to be a central focus.

We have implemented several green initiatives within our operations, including energy-efficient data centers, waste reduction programs and policies that minimize our carbon footprint. Additionally, we have supported various charitable organizations and community projects, reflecting our dedication to making a positive impact beyond our business.

As we look to the future, we are excited about the opportunities that lie ahead. The financial services industry is poised for continued transformation and we are committed to staying at the forefront of this evolution. Our focus will remain on innovation, client success and expanding our global success.

As we reflect on the achievements of the past year, I would like to take this opportunity to express my gratitude and acknowledgment. To our employees – the NETSOL family – your hard work and passion have been the driving force behind our achievements. Your dedication to excellence and your ability to adapt to change have been truly inspiring. I am grateful for your contributions and proud to lead such a talented and motivated team.

To our clients, thank you for your continued partnership and support. It is your trust in our solutions that motivates us to strive for excellence and deliver value. We are honored to be a part of your journey and look forward to continuing our collaboration.

To our investors, your confidence in our vision and strategy has been a source of strength. We are committed to upholding the highest standards of governance and delivering long-term value. Your support is integral to our ongoing success.

I would also like to extend my heartfelt gratitude to our Chairman and Board of Directors for their unwavering support and exceptional guidance throughout the year. Your strategic vision and steadfast commitment have been instrumental in steering our company towards continued growth.

In closing, I am both optimistic and excited about the future of NETSOL. The past year has been a testament to our commitment to excellence. As we move forward, we will continue to embrace change, drive innovation and deliver exceptional value to our clients and stakeholders.

Earlier this year, we lost our beloved founder, chairman and the first investor of NETSOL – Shahab Ghauri. He bravely battled an illness for a long period of time. All of the company's management and its employees acknowledge his contributions to founding this company back in 1996 and as its foremost investor, who believed that NETSOL will change Pakistan's IT sector.

The following highlights the steps NETSOL Technologies takes as an entity to play its part in achieving the below mentioned goals set by the United Nations.

ENVIRONMENT

AFFORDABLE AND CLEAN ENERGY

- Solar Energy: Taking a significant step toward renewable energy, Netsol is in the process of installing solar panels. This investment in solar energy not only reduces our reliance on conventional power sources but also demonstrates our dedication to contributing to a more sustainable future.
- Data center and server rooms, being large consumers of energy in an IT landscape, have been standardized using an eco-friendly room design that incorporates power and cooling best practices
- 'Be Responsible – Save Electricity' Campaign: Our "Save Electricity" campaign encourages employees to adopt energy-saving habits, such as turning off ACs, computers, and chargers when not in use, and maintaining AC temperatures at 26°C. Through these efforts, we are fostering a culture of responsibility and conservation within our organization.

In our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us, the statement of financial position, the statement of profit or loss, the statement of comprehensive income, the statement of changes in equity and the statement of cash flows together with the notes forming part thereof conform with the accounting and reporting standards as applicable in Pakistan and give the information required by the Companies Act, 2017 (XIX of 2017), in the manner so required and respectively give a true and fair view of the state of the Company's affairs as at June 30, 2024 and of the profit, its comprehensive income, the changes in equity and its cash flows for the year then ended.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with the International Standards on Auditing (ISAs) as applicable in Pakistan. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Company in accordance with the International Ethics Standards Board for Accountants' Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants as adopted by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of Pakistan (the code) and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the Code. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Key Audit Matters

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment, were of most significance in our audit of the financial statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters.

Following are the key audit matters:

Key Audit Matters	How the matter was addressed in our audit
1. Revenue Recognition Refer to notes 4.10 & 29 to the financial statements.  The Company has earned revenue of Rs. 9,280.65 million for the year ending June 30, 2024. The Company's revenue is derived from multiple revenue streams, as referred	Our key audit procedures included the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Obtained an understanding of the Company's processes and related internal controls for revenue recognition and on a sample basis, tested the operating effectiveness of those controls.</li></ul> to in Note 29 to the accompanying financial statements, including license, rendering of services and subscription and support. Each stream has its own revenue recognition policy based on the nature of revenue and underlying contractual arrangements as referred to in Note 4.10. Certain contracts with customers require significant management judgment to determine the appropriate timing and method of revenue recognition.

Large contracts are typically bundled and often include license, rendering of services and subscription and support revenues.

We consider revenue recognition as a key audit matter due to revenue being one of the key performance indicators of the Company with multiple revenue streams, inherent risk of material misstatement and significant increase in revenue from last year.

- Assessed the appropriateness of the Company's revenue recognition policies and their compliance with applicable accounting and reporting standards.
- Compared a sample of transactions comprising of various revenue streams during the year with underlying documentation including contracts with customers, sales invoices and where relevant, underlying time sheets, completion certificates and other supporting documents to assess whether the revenue was recorded in accordance with the Company's revenue accounting policy and applicable financial reporting framework.
- Agreed license revenue to signed contracts, file transfer protocol logs or software license agreements.
- Agreed the revenue to subsequent payment as evidence of collectability.
- Critically assessed the significant management judgments applied in determining the timing and method of revenue recognition, particularly for complex contracts requiring significant estimation.
- Performed a comparative analysis of the revenue recognized in the current year with that of the prior year, investigating any significant variances or trends.
- Performed cut-off procedures on sales to ensure revenue has been recorded in the correct period.
- Checked receipts from customers to whom sales were made.
- Considered adequacy of the disclosures provided under the revenue standard IFRS-15 and assessed the completeness and mathematical accuracy of the relevant disclosures.

2. Valuation of trade debts and contract assets

Refer to note 4.12, 4.13, 9, 11 and 12 to the financial statements.

The Company's gross trade debts and contract assets as at June 30, 2024 are Rs. 5,575.80 million and Rs. 1,851.98 million respectively against which allowances for expected credit losses of Rs. 280.60 million and Rs 54.09 million have been recognized.

Our key audit procedures included the following:

- Considered management's process of application of ECL model to calculate impairment loss against trade debts and contract assets.
- Evaluated key decisions made by the Company's management with respect to estimates and

The loss allowance for expected credit losses (ECL model) on trade debts and contract assets has been recognized in the financial statements using the guidance included in IFRS 9 'Financial Instruments'. Determination of ECL provision for trade debts and contract assets requires significant judgment and assumptions including consideration of factors such as historical credit loss experience, time value of money and forward-looking macroeconomic information. We have considered this area as a key audit matter due to its size, representing 49.35% of the total assets of the Company as at June 30, 2024 and the significant management judgements involved in valuation.	judgements in relation to application of the ECL model. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Evaluated the ECL model for appropriateness of the methodology applied and checked arithmetical accuracy of the model.</li> <li>• Checked appropriateness of aging on sample basis.</li> <li>• Circularized balance confirmation request for trade debts on sample basis and evaluated responses received.</li> <li>• Checked subsequent clearance of balances due as of June 30, 2024 on sample basis.</li> <li>• Assessed financial impacts and appropriateness of disclosures made in the financial statements to determine whether they are complied with the accounting and reporting standards as applicable in Pakistan.</li> </ul>

Information Other than the Financial Statements and Auditor's Report Thereon

Management is responsible for the other information. The other information comprises the information included in the Annual Report, but does not include the financial statements and our auditor's report thereon.

Our opinion on the financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon. In connection with our audit of the financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated.

If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

Responsibilities of Management and Board of Directors for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with the accounting and reporting standards as applicable in Pakistan and the requirements of the Companies Act, 2017 (XIX of 2017) and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the Company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Company or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Board of directors of the Company are responsible for overseeing the Company's financial reporting process.

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with ISAs as applicable in Pakistan will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with ISAs as applicable in Pakistan, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Company to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

We communicate with the board of directors regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide the board of directors with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with the board of directors, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

Report on Other Legal and Regulatory Requirements

Based on our audit, we further report that in our opinion:

- a) proper books of account have been kept by the Company as required by the Companies Act, 2017 (XIX of 2017);
- b) the statement of financial position, the statement of profit or loss, the statement of comprehensive income, the statement of changes in equity and the statement of cash flows together with the notes thereon have been drawn up in conformity with the Companies Act, 2017 (XIX of 2017) and are in agreement with the books of account and returns;
- c) investments made, expenditure incurred and guarantees extended during the year were for the purpose of the Company's business; and
- d) no Zakat was deductible at source under Zakat and Ushr Ordinance, 1980 (XVIII of 1980).

Other Matter

The financial statements of the Company for the year ended June 30, 2023, were audited by another auditor who expressed an unmodified opinion on those financial statements on September 26, 2023.

The engagement partner on the audit resulting in this independent auditor's report is Amin Ali.

3. Use of estimates and judgements

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with approved accounting and reporting standards, as applicable in Pakistan, requires the management to make judgments, estimates and assumptions that affect the application of policies and the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, income and expenses.

The estimates and associated assumptions are based on historical experience and various other factors that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances, the results of which form the basis of making judgments about the carrying values of assets, liabilities that are not readily apparent from other sources. Actual results may differ from these estimates.

The estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognized in the period in which the estimate is revised if the revision affects only that period, or in the period of revision and future periods if the revision affects both current and future periods.

The areas involving higher degree of judgement or complexity included in these financial statements are as follows:

4. Material Accounting Policy Information

The Company adopted disclosure of Accounting Policies (Amendments to IAS 1 and IFRS practice statements 2 'Making Materiality Judgments') from 01 July, 2023. Although amendments did not result in any changes to the accounting policies themselves, they impact the accounting policy information disclosed in the financial statements. The amendments require disclosure of 'material', rather than 'significant' accounting policies.

The material accounting policies adopted in the preparation of these financial statements are set out below. These policies have been consistently applied to all the periods presented except otherwise stated.

4.1 Property and equipment

(i) Owned assets

Property and equipment, except for freehold land, are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation and identified impairment losses (if any). Freehold land is stated at cost less any identified impairment loss.

Depreciation is charged by applying straight line method to write off the cost over the remaining useful life of the assets. Rates of depreciation are stated in note 6.1. Depreciation method, residual value and useful lives of assets are reviewed at least at each reporting date and adjusted if impact on depreciation is significant.

Depreciation of an asset begins when it is available for use, i.e. when it is in the location and condition necessary for it to be capable of operating in the manner intended by management. Depreciation of an asset ceases when the asset is derecognized. Depreciation does not cease when the asset becomes idle or is retired from active use unless the asset is fully depreciated.

Subsequent costs are included in the asset's carrying amounts or recognized as a separate asset, as appropriate, only when it is probable that future economic benefits associated with the item will flow to the Company and the cost of the item can be measured reliably.

The carrying amount of property and equipment is removed from the statement of financial position upon scrapping or disposal or when no future economic benefit is expected from its use, scrapping or disposal.

Day to day maintenance and normal repairs are charged to profit or loss as and when incurred. Gain or loss on scrapping or disposal of assets, if any, is charged to profit or loss. Gain or loss on disposal of assets is the difference between the sale proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset disposed off.

(ii) Right of use assets

The Company recognizes right-of-use assets at the commencement date of the lease (i.e., the date the underlying asset is available for use). Right-of-use assets are measured at cost, less any accumulated depreciation and identified impairment losses, and adjusted for any re-measurement of lease liabilities. The cost of right-of-use assets includes the amount of lease liabilities recognized, initial direct costs incurred, and lease payments made at or before the commencement date less any lease incentives received. Unless the Company is reasonably certain to obtain ownership of the leased asset at the end of the lease term, the recognized right-of-use assets are depreciated over the shorter of their estimated useful life and the lease term. Right-of-use assets are amortized over the useful life of the assets using straight line method at the rates given in note 6.2. Amortization on additions begins when it is available for use, i.e. when it is in the location and condition necessary for it to be capable of operating in the manner intended by management. Amortization of an asset ceases when the asset is derecognized. Right-of-use assets are also subject to impairment.

(iii) Capital work in progress

Capital work in progress is stated at cost less any identified impairment losses. It represents expenditure incurred on property and equipment during construction and installation. Cost also includes applicable borrowing costs under IAS 23. These expenditures are transferred to relevant assets' category as and when assets are available for use.

4.2 Intangible assets

Research and software products development

Research costs are expensed as incurred. Software product development costs are expensed as incurred unless technical and commercial feasibility of the project is demonstrated, it is probable that future economic benefits will flow to the Company, the Company has an intention and ability to complete and use or sell the software and cost can be measured reliably.

Notes to and forming part of the Financial Statements

For the Year Ended June 30, 2024

Note 4, Material Accounting Policy Information - Continued...

There are two components of intangible assets:

- a. In-house developed intangible assets
- b. Intangible assets acquired from market

(a) In-house developed intangible assets

The Company may capitalize certain computer software development costs in accordance with IAS-38 'Intangible Assets'. Costs incurred internally to create a computer software product or to develop an enhancement to an existing product are charged to expense when incurred as research and development expense until technological feasibility for the respective product is established. Thereafter, all software development costs may be capitalized and reported at the lower of unamortized cost or recoverable amount. Capitalization will cease when the product or enhancement is available for general release to customers.

Amortization is charged on straight line basis over the useful life of the intangible assets. All intangible assets with an indefinite useful life are tested for impairment at each reporting date. Rates of amortization are stated in note 7.

(b) Intangible assets acquired from market

Intangible assets acquired from market are stated at cost less accumulated amortization and identified impairment losses, if any.

Subsequent costs are included in the asset's carrying amounts or recognized as a separate asset, as appropriate, only when it is probable that future economic benefits associated with the item will flow to the Company and the cost of the item can be measured reliably. All other expenses are charged to profit or loss when they occur.

Amortization is charged by applying straight line method to write off the cost over the remaining useful life of the intangible assets unless such lives are indefinite. All intangible assets with an indefinite useful life are tested for impairment at each reporting date. Amortization on additions of acquired intangible assets begins when it is available for use i.e. (i.e., the month when the intangible is ready for use) while no amortization is charged for the month in which the asset is disposed off. Rates of amortization are stated in note 6.1.

4.3 Impairment of non financial asset

The Company continually assesses, at each reporting date, whether there is any indication that an asset may be impaired. If such indication exists, the carrying amounts of such assets are reviewed to assess whether they are recorded in excess of their recoverable amount. Where carrying values exceed the respective recoverable amount, assets are written down to their recoverable amounts and the resulting impairment loss is recognized in profit or loss for the year. The recoverable amount is the higher of an assets' fair value less costs to sell and value in use. Where an impairment loss is recognized, the depreciation charge is adjusted in the future periods to allocate the assets' revised carrying amount over its estimated useful life.

4.4 Foreign currency translation and transaction

Transactions denominated in foreign currencies are translated in Pak Rupees at the foreign exchange rate prevailing at the date of transaction. Monetary assets and liabilities in foreign currencies are translated into Pak Rupees at the foreign exchange rates prevailing at the reporting date. Non-monetary assets and liabilities measured at historical cost are translated at the exchange rate prevailing at the date of the transaction. Non-monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies that are stated at fair value are translated at the exchange rate prevailing at the date when fair values were determined. All exchange differences are charged to statement of profit or loss.

4.5 Staff benefits

(i) Retirement benefits

The Company operates a defined contributory Provident Fund for its permanent employees. Contributions are made equally by the Company and the employee at 8% of basic salary in the Provident Fund on monthly basis. Company's contribution is recognized as a cost in profit or loss. The fund is administrated by the Trustees.

(ii) Short-term benefits

Short-term benefits to employees are calculated without discounting and are recognized as cost when related services are received.

(iii) Employees' share option scheme

The Company operates an equity settled share based Employee' Share Option Scheme ('Scheme"). The fair value of options granted is determined at the grant date and is recognized as employee compensation expense on a straight line basis over the vesting period in profit or loss with corresponding credit to equity as employee compensation reserve. Fair value of options is arrived at using Black Scholes Pricing Model.

When the options are exercised, the proceeds received equivalent to the face value of related shares is credited to share capital and any amount above the share capital is credited to share premium account.

4.6 Taxation

Provision for current tax is based on taxable income for the year determined in accordance with the prevailing laws for taxation of income. The charge for tax on income is calculated at the current rates of taxation as applicable after taking into account tax credit and tax rebates available, if any. Income tax expense is recognized in statement of profit or loss except to the extent that it relates to items recognized directly in equity, in which case it is recognized in equity. Charge for tax expense also includes adjustments where necessary, relating to prior years which arise from assessments finalized during the current year.

Deferred tax is accounted for using the statement of financial position method in respect of all temporary differences arising from differences between the carrying amount of assets and liabilities in the financial statements and the corresponding tax bases used in the computation of the taxable profit. Deferred tax liabilities are generally recognized for all taxable temporary differences and deferred tax assets are recognized to the extent that it is probable that taxable profits will be available against which the deductible temporary differences, unused tax losses and tax credits can be utilized. Deferred tax is calculated at the rates that are expected to apply to the year when the differences reverse based on tax rates that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the reporting date. Deferred tax is charged or credited in the statement of profit or loss, except in the case of items credited or charged to other comprehensive income in which case it is included in other comprehensive income.

Expenses and assets are recognized net of the amount of sales tax, except:

- When the sales tax incurred on a purchase of assets or services is not recoverable from the taxation authority, in which case, the sales tax is recognized as part of the cost of acquisition of the asset or as part of the expense item, as applicable.
- When receivables and payables are stated with the amount of sales tax included the net amount of sales tax recoverable from, or payable to, the taxation authority is included as part of receivables or payables in the statement of financial position.

In accordance with the Income Tax Ordinance, 2001, computation of final taxes is not based on taxable income. Therefore, as per IAS 12 Application Guidance on Accounting for Minimum Taxes and Final Taxes issued by the ICAP, these fall within the scope of IFRIC 21 / IAS 37 and accordingly have been classified as levy in these unconsolidated financial statements, except for taxes on dividends on the Company's investments in subsidiaries and associates which are specifically within the scope of IAS 12 and hence, these continue to be categorised as current income tax.

4.7 Trade and other payables

Liabilities for trade and other payables are carried at cost which is the fair value of the consideration to be paid in future for goods and / or services received, whether or not billed to the Company.

Liabilities for trade and other payable in foreign currency are revalued by applying the exchange rate applicable on each reporting date.

4.8 Provisions and contingencies

Provisions are recognized when the Company has a present legal or constructive obligation as a result of past events and, it is probable that an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation and reliable estimate of the amount can be made. Provisions are reviewed at each reporting date and adjusted to reflect the current best estimate. Where outflow of resources embodying economic benefits is not probable, a contingent liability is disclosed, unless the possibility of outflow is remote.

4.9 Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents comprise cash in hand and at current or saving accounts held with banks, fixed deposits and short-term, highly liquid investments that are readily convertible to known amounts of cash and which are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value. These also include facilities of running finance that form an integral part of the Company's cash management.

Notes to and forming part of the Financial Statements

For the Year Ended June 30, 2024

4.10 Revenue recognition

The Company follows IFRS 15 for the recognition of revenue from all its revenue streams. The Company determines revenue recognition using the following step wise approach:

- Identification of the contract, or contracts, with a customer;
- Identification of the performance obligations in the contract;
- Determination of the transaction price;
- Allocation of the transaction price to the performance obligations in the contract; and
- Recognition of revenue when, or as, a performance obligation is satisfied

The Company records the amount of revenue and related costs by considering whether it is a principal (gross presentation) or an agent (net presentation) by evaluating the nature of its promise to the customer. The Company has generally concluded that it is the principal in its revenue arrangements because it typically controls the services before transferring them to the customer. Revenue is presented net of sales, value-added and other taxes collected from customers and remitted to government authorities.

The Company has two primary revenue streams i.e. core revenue or non-core revenue.

Core Revenue:

The Company generates its core revenue from the export of (1) Software Licenses, (2) Services, which include implementation, customization and other consulting services, and (3) Subscription and Support, which includes subscription and post contract support, of its enterprise software solutions for the lease and finance industry. The Company offers its software using both traditional on-premises licensing model and Software as a Service (SaaS) model. The on-premises model involves the sale or license of software on a perpetual basis to customers who take possession of the software and install and maintain the software on their own hardware.

Non-Core Revenue:

The Company generates its non-core revenue by providing Business Process Outsourcing ('BPO') services and other services (including support services to its local customers).

Performance Obligations

A performance obligation is a promise in a contract to transfer a distinct good or service to the customer. The transaction price is allocated to each distinct performance obligation and recognized as revenue when, or as, the performance obligation is satisfied by transferring the promised services to the customer. The Company identifies the performance obligations at contract inception so that the Company can monitor and account for the performance obligations over the life of the contract.

The Company's contract which contains multiple performance obligations generally consists of the initial sale of licenses and a professional services engagement. Contracts generally have multiple performance obligations as customers purchase maintenance support and services in addition to the licenses. The Company's single performance obligation arrangements are typically maintenance renewals and professional services engagements.

For contracts with multiple performance obligations where the contracted price differs from the standalone selling price ("SSP") for any distinct good or service, the Company may be required to allocate the contract's transaction price to each performance obligation using its best estimate for the SSP.

Information about the Company's performance obligations are summarized below:

a) Software licenses:

Performance obligation is satisfied and revenue from software licenses is recognized at the point in time when transfer of control for software is occurred either upon physical delivery of license through CD, USB or electronically using FTP or delivery of the license key by other electronic methods which provide immediate availability of the product to the customer. The Company's typical payment terms tend to vary by region, but its standard payment terms are within 120 days of invoice.

b) Subscription and support:

Subscription revenue is recognized ratably over the initial subscription period committed to by the customer commencing when the product is made available to the customer. The initial subscription period is typically 12 to 60 months. The Company generally invoices its customers in advance in quarterly or annual installments and typical payment terms provide that customers make payment within 120 days of invoice. Performance obligation against support revenue is recognized ratably over the term of the support period, which in most instances is one year. Software license updates provide customers with rights to unspecified software product updates, maintenance releases and patches released during the term of the support period on a when-and-if available basis. The Company's customers purchase both product support and license updates when they acquire new software licenses. In addition, a majority of customers renew their support services contracts annually and typical payment terms provide that customers make payment within 120 days of invoice.

c) Professional services:

Performance obligation is satisfied and revenue from professional services is recognized over the time and typically comprises implementation, development, customization, enhancements, data migration, training or other consulting services. Consulting services are generally sold on a time-and-materials or fixed fee basis and can include services ranging from software installation to data migration and building non-complex interfaces to allow the software to operate in integrated environments. The Company recognizes revenue from time-and-material arrangements as the services are performed. In fixed fee arrangements, revenue is recognized as services are performed as measured by efforts incurred to date, compared to total estimated efforts to complete the services project. The management applies judgment while estimating efforts to complete the services projects. A number of internal and external factors can affect these estimates, including utilization and efficiency variances and specification and testing requirement changes. Services are generally invoiced upon milestones as agreed in the contract and payments are typically due in 120 days after invoice.

d) BPO services:

Revenue from BPO services is recognized when earned. The Company recognizes revenue on issuance of billing to the customer. Payment terms are up to 120 days after invoice.

e) Miscellaneous income

Interest on bank deposits is recognized and received on a time proportion basis on the principal amount outstanding and at the rate applicable.

Rental income is recognized on time proportion basis. Payment terms are 30 days.

Dividend is recognized as income when the right of receipt is established. Payment terms are 15 working days after declaration of dividend.

Miscellaneous income is recognized on receipt basis, and is recognised in other income in statement of profit or loss.

Contract Modifications

Contract modifications involving changes in scope or price are treated as separate contracts if they add distinct performance obligations at standalone prices. If not, they are either treated as a termination of the existing contract and creation of a new one or, if no new distinct obligations arise, adjustments are made on a cumulative catch-up basis i.e. recognizing in the current period the cumulative effect of changes on current and prior periods according to the revised performance obligations.

Significant Judgments

Due to the complexity of certain contracts, the actual revenue recognition treatment required under IFRS 15 for the Company's arrangements may be dependent on contract-specific terms and may vary in some instances.

Judgment is required to determine the stand alone selling price (SSP) for each distinct performance obligation. The Company rarely licenses or sells products on a stand-alone basis, so the Company is required to estimate the range of SSPs for each performance obligation. In instances where SSP is not directly observable because the Company does not sell the license, product or service separately, the Company determines the SSP using information that may include market conditions and other observable inputs. In making these judgments, the Company analyzes various factors, including its pricing methodology and consistency, size of the arrangement, length of term, customer demographics and overall market and economic conditions. Based on these results, the estimated SSP is set for each distinct product or service delivered to customers.

The stand-alone selling price of the licenses was measured primarily through an analysis of pricing that management evaluated when quoting prices to customers. Although the Company has no history of selling its software separately from support and other services, the Company does have historical experience with amending contracts with customers to provide additional modules of its software or providing those modules at an optional price. This information guides the Company in assessing the stand-alone selling price of the Company's software, since the Company can observe instances where a customer had a particular component of the Company's software that was essentially priced separate from other goods and services that the Company delivered to that customer.

The Company recognises revenue from implementation and customization services using percentage of estimated man-days that the work requires. The Company believes the level of effort to complete the services is best measured by the amount of time (measured as an employee working for one day on implementation/customization work) that is required to complete the implementation or customization work. The Company continuously reviews its estimate of man-days required to complete implementation and customization services.

Revenue is recognized over time for the Company's subscription, support and fixed fee professional services that are separate performance obligations. For the Company's professional services, revenue is recognized over time, generally using man-days expended to measure progress. Judgement is required in estimating project status and efforts necessary to complete projects. A number of internal and external factors can affect these estimates, including man-day rates, utilization, specification variances and testing requirement changes.

If a group of agreements are entered at or near the same time and so closely related that they are, in effect, part of a single arrangement, such agreements are deemed to be combined as one arrangement for revenue recognition purposes. The Company exercises significant judgment to evaluate the relevant facts and circumstances in determining whether agreements should be accounted for separately or as a single arrangement. The Company's judgments about whether a group of contracts comprise a single arrangement can affect the allocation of consideration to the distinct performance obligations, which could have an effect on results of operations for the periods involved.

If a contract includes variable consideration, the Company exercises judgment in estimating the amount of consideration to which the entity will be entitled in exchange for transferring the promised goods or services to a customer. When estimating variable consideration, the Company will consider all relevant facts and circumstances. Variable consideration will be estimated and included in the contract price only when it is probable that a significant reversal in the amount of revenue recognized will not occur.

Practical Expedients and Exemptions

There are several practical expedients and exemptions allowed under IFRS 15 that impact timing of revenue recognition and the Company's disclosures. Below is a list of practical expedients the Company applied in the adoption and application of IFRS 15:

- a) The Company does not evaluate a contract for a significant financing component if payment is expected within one year or less from the transfer of the promised items to the customer.
- b) The Company generally expenses sales commissions and sales agent fees when incurred when the amortization period would have been one year or less. These costs are recorded within sales and marketing expense in the statement of profit or loss.
- c) The Company does not disclose the value of unsatisfied performance obligations for contracts that have an original expected duration of one year or less.
- d) The Group does not disclose the value of unsatisfied performance obligations for contracts for which the Group recognizes revenue at the amount to which it has the right to invoice for services performed (applies to time-and-material engagements).

4.11 Costs to obtain a contract

The Company does not have a material amount of costs to obtain a contract capitalized at any reporting date. In general, the Company incurs few direct incremental costs for obtaining new customer contracts. We rarely incur incremental costs to review or otherwise enter into contractual arrangements with customers. In addition, our sales personnel receive fees that we refer to as commissions, but that are based on more than simply signing up new customers. Our sales personnel are required to perform additional duties beyond signing of new deals, including account management of customers and cash collection efforts.

4.12 Contract assets

A contract asset is the right to consideration in exchange for services transferred to the customer. If the Company has satisfied the performance obligation, either in full or partially, by transferring services to a customer before the invoice is issued or payment is due, a contract asset is recognized for the earned consideration that is conditional.

4.13 Trade receivables

A receivable represents the Company's right to an amount of consideration that is unconditional (i.e., only the passage of time is required before payment of the consideration is due). Refer to accounting policies of financial assets in section 4.17 (i) Financial instruments – initial recognition and measurement.

4.14 Contract liabilities

A contract liability is the obligation to transfer goods or services to a customer for which the Company has received consideration from the customer in advance or an amount of consideration is due. If a customer pays consideration before the Company transfers goods or services to the customer, a contract liability is recognized when the amount is received or the payment is due (whichever is earlier). Contract liabilities are recognized as revenue when the Company performs under the contract.

4.15 Related party transactions

The Company enters into transactions with related parties at an arm's length basis. Prices for transactions with related parties are determined using admissible valuation methods, except in extremely rare circumstances where, subject to approval of the Board of Directors, it is in the best interest of the Company to do so.

4.16 Off-setting of financial instruments

Financial assets and liabilities are offset and the net amount is reported in the financial statements only when there is legally enforceable right to set-off the recognized amount and the Company intends either to settle on a net basis, or to realize the assets and to settle the liabilities simultaneously.

4.17 Financial instruments

A financial instrument is any contract that gives rise to a financial asset of one entity and a financial liability or equity instrument of another entity.

(i) Financial assets*Initial recognition and measurement

Financial assets are classified, at initial recognition, and subsequently measured at amortized cost, fair value through other comprehensive income (OCI), and fair value through profit or loss.

The classification of financial assets at initial recognition depends on the financial asset's contractual cash flow characteristics and the Company's business model for managing them.

The Company initially measures a financial asset at its fair value plus transaction cost. In the case of a financial asset not at fair value through profit or loss at its fair value.

Subsequent measurement

For purposes of subsequent measurement, financial assets are classified in four categories:

- Financial assets at amortized cost (debt instruments)
- Financial assets at fair value through OCI with recycling of cumulative gains and losses (debt instruments)
- Financial assets designated at fair value through OCI with no recycling of cumulative gains and losses upon derecognition (equity instruments)
- Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss

Derecognition

A financial asset (or, where applicable, a part of a financial asset or part of a group of similar financial assets) is primarily derecognized (i.e., removed from the Company's statement of financial position) when rights to receive cash flows from the asset have expired or have been transferred and the Company has transferred substantially all risks and rewards of ownership.

Notes to and forming part of the Financial Statements

Impairment of financial assets

The Company recognizes an allowance for expected credit losses (ECLs) for all debt instruments not held at fair value through profit or loss. ECLs are based on the difference between the contractual cash flows due in accordance with the contract and all the cash flows that the Company expects to receive, discounted at an approximation of the original effective interest rate. The expected cash flows will include cash flows from the sale of collateral held or other credit enhancements that are integral to the contractual terms.

ECLs are recognized in two stages. For credit exposures, for which there has not been a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition, ECLs are provided for credit losses that result from default events that are possible within the next 12-months (a 12-month ECL). For those credit exposures for which there has been a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition, a loss allowance is required for credit losses expected over the remaining life of the exposure, irrespective of the timing of the default (a lifetime ECL).

For trade receivables and contract assets, the Company applies a simplified approach in calculating ECLs. Therefore, the Company does not track changes in credit risk, but instead recognizes a loss allowance based on lifetime ECLs at each reporting date. The Company has established a provision matrix that is based on its historical credit loss experience, adjusted for forward-looking factors specific to the debtors and the economic environment, based on the groupings for various customers segments that have similar patterns (i.e. by geography and customer wise).

(ii) Financial liabilities

Financial liabilities are classified, at initial recognition, as financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss, loans and borrowings, payables, or as derivatives designated as hedging instruments in an effective hedge, as appropriate.

All financial liabilities are recognized initially at fair value and, in the case of loans and borrowings and payables, net of directly attributable transaction costs.

Financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss

Financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss include financial liabilities held for trading and financial liabilities designated upon initial recognition at fair value through profit or loss. Gains or losses on liabilities held for trading are recognized in the statement of profit or loss. Financial liabilities designated upon initial recognition at fair value through profit or loss are designated at the initial date of recognition, and only if the criteria in IFRS 9 are satisfied. The Company has not designated any financial liability at fair value through profit or loss.

Loans and borrowings

After initial recognition, interest-bearing loans and borrowings are subsequently measured at amortized cost using the effective interest rate (EIR) method. Gains and losses are recognized in the unconsolidated statement of profit or loss when liabilities are derecognized as well as through the EIR amortization process.

Amortized cost is calculated by taking into account any discount or premium on acquisition and fees or costs that are an integral part of the EIR. The EIR amortization is included as finance costs in the statement of profit or loss.

This category generally applies to interest-bearing loans and borrowings.

Other financial liabilities are also subsequently measured at amortized cost using the EIR method. Interest expense and foreign exchange gains and losses are recognized in the statement of profit or loss. Any gain or loss on de-recognition is also recognized in the statement of profit or loss.

Derecognition

A financial liability is derecognized when the obligation under the liability is discharged or cancelled or expires. When an existing financial liability is replaced by another from the same lender on substantially different terms, or the terms of an existing liability are substantially modified, such an exchange or modification is treated as derecognition of the original liability and recognition of a new liability. Difference in the respective carrying amounts is recognized in the statement of profit or loss.

4.18 Investments

a) Investment in subsidiary

Investment in subsidiary is initially recognized at cost. At subsequent reporting date, recoverable amounts are estimated to determine the extent of impairment loss, if any, and carrying amount of investment is adjusted accordingly. Impairment losses are recognized as expense in the statement of profit or loss. Where impairment loss is subsequently reversed, the carrying amounts of investment are increased to its revised recoverable amount, limited to the extent of initial cost of investment. Reversal of impairment losses are recognized in the statement of profit or loss.

b) Investment in associates

An associate is an entity over which the Company has significant influence. Significant influence is the power to participate in the financial and operating policy decisions of the investee, but is not control or joint control over those policies.

The considerations made in determining significant influence are similar to those necessary to determine control over subsidiaries. The Company's investment in its associate is accounted for using the equity method.

Under the equity method, investment in an associate is initially recognized at cost. The carrying amount of the investment is adjusted to recognize changes in the Company's share of net assets of the associate since the acquisition date. Goodwill relating to the associate is included in the carrying amount of the investment and is not tested for impairment separately.

The statement of profit or loss reflects the Company's share of the results of operations of the associate. Any change in other comprehensive income of those investees is presented as part of the Company's other comprehensive income. In addition, when there has been a change recognized directly in the equity of the associate, the Company recognizes its share of any changes, when applicable, in the statement of changes in equity.

The financial statements of the associate or joint venture are prepared for the same reporting period as the Company, unless otherwise stated. When necessary, adjustments are made to bring the accounting policies in line with those of the group.

The Company periodically determines whether it is necessary to recognize any impairment loss on its investment in its associate or not. The Company determines on annual basis whether there is any objective evidence that the investment in associate is impaired. If there is such evidence, the Company calculates the amount of impairment as the difference between the recoverable amount of the associate and its carrying value, and then recognizes the loss within 'Share of profit or loss of an associate' in the statement of profit or loss.

Upon loss of significant influence over the associate, the Company measures and recognizes any retained investment at its fair value. Any difference between the carrying amount of the associate upon loss of significant influence and the fair value of the retained investment and proceeds from disposal is recognized in profit or loss.

5. Summary Of Other Accounting Policies

5.1 Lease liabilities

At the commencement date of the lease, the Company recognizes lease liabilities measured at the present value of lease payments to be made over the lease term. The lease payments include fixed payments (including in-substance fixed payments) less any lease incentives receivable, variable lease payments that depend on an index or a rate, and amounts expected to be paid under residual value guarantees. The variable lease payments that do not depend on an index or a rate are recognized as expense in the period on which the event or condition that triggers the payment occurs.

In calculating the present value of lease payments, the Company uses the incremental borrowing rate at the lease commencement date if the interest rate implicit in the lease is not readily determinable. After the commencement date, the amount of lease liabilities is increased to reflect the accretion of interest and reduced for the lease payments made. In addition, the carrying amount of lease liabilities is re-measured if there is a modification, a change in the lease term, a change in the in-substance fixed lease payments or a change in the assessment to purchase the underlying asset.

Notes to and forming part of the Financial Statements

Short-term leases and leases of low-value assets

The Company applies the short-term lease recognition exemption to its short-term leases (i.e., those leases that have a lease term of 12 months or less from the commencement date and do not contain a purchase option). It also applies the lease of low-value assets recognition exemption to leases that are considered of low value. Lease payments on short-term leases and leases of low-value assets are recognized as expense on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

Significant judgement in determining the lease term of contracts with renewal & termination options

The Company determines the lease term as the non-cancellable term of the lease, together with any periods covered by an option to extend the lease if it is reasonably certain to be exercised, or any periods covered by an option to terminate the lease, if it is reasonably certain not to be exercised.

The Company applies judgement in evaluating whether it is reasonably certain to exercise the option to renew or to terminate the lease. That is, it considers all relevant factors that create an economic incentive for it to exercise the renewal & termination. After the commencement date, the Company reassesses the lease term if there is a significant event or change in circumstances that is within its control and affects its ability to exercise (or not to exercise) the option to renew (e.g., a change in business strategy).

5.2 Advances and deposits

These are recognized at nominal amount which is fair value of considerations to be received in future.

5.3 Borrowing costs

Borrowing costs directly attributable to the construction /acquisition of qualifying assets are capitalized up to the date, including the period when technical and administrative work is carried on; the respective assets are available for the intended use. All other mark-up, interest and other related charges are taken to the statement of profit or loss currently. Qualifying assets are assets that necessarily take substantial period of time to get ready for their intended use.

5.4 Dividend and appropriation to reserves

Dividend and appropriation to reserves are recognized in the financial statements in the period in which these are approved. However, if they are approved after the reporting period but before the financial statements are authorized for issue they are disclosed in the notes to financial statements.

5.5 Fair value

The fair value of financial instruments that are actively traded in organized financial markets is determined by reference to quoted market bid prices at the close of business on the statement of financial position date. Where there is no active market, fair value is determined using valuation techniques. Such techniques include using recent arm's length market transaction; reference to the current market value of another instrument, which has substantially similar characteristics, discounted cash flow analysis or other valuation models.

5.6 Earnings per share

The Company presents both basic and diluted earnings per share (EPS). Basic EPS is calculated by dividing the profit after tax attributable to ordinary shareholders of the Company by the weighted average number of ordinary shares outstanding during the period. Diluted EPS is calculated by dividing the profit attributable to ordinary share holders of the Company by the weighted average number of ordinary shares outstanding during the year plus the weighted average number of ordinary shares that would be issued on conversion of all the dilutive potential ordinary shares into ordinary shares.

Description of scheme

As per the approved employee stock option scheme, the Board and the compensation committee granted three million stock options to employees on December 27, 2021 at a grant price of Rs. 77.84 per option. No amount is paid or payable by any employee on receipt of the option. No option carries the right to vote or dividend. According to the scheme, 50% of the options will become exercisable after completion of 12 months from date of grant, another 30% of the granted option after completion of 24 months from the grant date and the remaining 20% of the granted option will become exercisable after completion of 36 months from the date of grant. The options are exercisable within a period of 10 years with un-exercised options to lapse on December 27, 2031.

Measurement of fair value

The Company uses "Black Scholes Pricing Model" to determine the fair value of options at the grant date. Fair value at grant date of the equity settled share based arrangement was calculated using the following assumptions.

	2024	2023
Total number of options granted	3,000,000	3,000,000
Per option fair value at the grant date	Rs. 14.82	Rs. 14.82
Average 30 days per share price preceding the date of grant	Rs. 96.79	Rs. 96.79
Exercise price per option	Rs. 77.84	Rs. 77.84
Annual rate of quarterly dividends	13.50%	13.50%
Discount Rate - bond equivalent yield	11.80%	11.80%
Annual volatility	55.08%	55.08%

The expected volatility reflects the assumption that the historical volatility over a period similar to the life of the options is indicative of future trends, which may not necessarily be the actual outcome.

Movement in employee share options during the year:

28. Contingencies and Commitments

28.1 Contingencies

Mr. Ahsan Zubair, an ex-employee of the Company has filed a case for recovery of damages dated January 26, 2013 for malicious prosecution before the Honourable Civil Court, Lahore and has sought damages to the tune of Rs. 500 million. The case was filed five years after a complaint lodged by NetSol Technologies Limited with Federal Investigation Authority pertaining to use of NetSol's IP without authority by a company formed by the employee and his partner who was also an ex-employee of the Company. Keeping in view the facts and circumstances of the case, including the nature of evidence of the plaintiff and the laws applicable, it can safely be inferred that, on merits, no case for damages is made out. This is also endorsed by the fact that the case is barred by the laws relating to limitation. Moreover none of the ingredients forming basis for allowing a case of malicious prosecution are attracted. In the opinion of the legal advisor, the outcome of the case is expected in favour of the Company, hence, no provision is incorporated in these financial statements.

28.2 Commitments

Bank guarantees have been issued amounting to Rs. 60.93 million (2023: Rs. 36.21 million) against performance of various contracts, to LESCO and to Standard Chartered Bank (Pakistan) Limited against its corporate credit cards.

The Company has capital commitments of Rs 1.32 million as at June 30, 2024 (2023: Nil).

(ii) Interest Rate Risk

Interest rate risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market interest rates. Majority of the interest rate exposure arises from bank borrowings, lease liabilities, term deposits, deposits in profit and loss/saving accounts with banks and investments in mutual funds. The Company mitigates its interest rate risk by investing available cash in mutual funds and bank deposits, generating more return compared to the finance cost.

The interest rate profile of the Company's interest-bearing financial instruments as at the reporting date is as follows:

	2024	2023
	Rupees in Thousands
Floating rate instruments
Financial assets
Bank balances	4,136,322	2,242,527

Long term financing	15,820	92,195
Short term borrowings	1,580,000	1,580,000
	1,596,792	1,676,521

Notes to and forming part of the Financial Statements

For the Year Ended June 30, 2024

The Company has no instruments subject to fixed interest rate.

Cash flow sensitivity analysis for variable rate instruments

As at June 30, 2024, if floating interest rates had been 1% higher / lower with all other variables held constant, profit before tax for the year would have been lower / higher by Rs. 7.74 million (2023: Rs. 3.75 million), mainly as a result of interest exposure on variable rate borrowings.

(iii) Other price risk

Other price risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market prices (other than those arising from currency risk or interest rate risk), whether those changes are caused by factors specific to the individual financial instrument or its issuer, or factors affecting all similar financial instruments traded in the market. The Company is not exposed to significant other price risk.

(b) Credit risk

Credit risk is the risk that a counterparty will not meet its obligations under a financial instrument or customer contract, leading to a financial loss. Credit risk of the Company arises from trade debts, loans and advances, trade deposits, other receivables and deposits with banks. To reduce exposure to credit risk, the Company has developed a formal approval process. The management assesses the credit quality of the customers, taking into account their financial position, past experience and other factors and makes provision against those balances (if required). The utilization of credit limits is regularly monitored. For banks and financial institutions, only independently rated parties with a strong credit rating are accepted.

The Company monitors the credit quality of its financial assets with reference to historical performance of such assets and available external credit ratings, if any. As at June 30, 2024, the maximum exposure to credit risk is equal to the carrying amount of the financial assets as detailed below:

More than one year		1,511,959	502,534
		5,575,799	5,995,292

The Company does not have significant exposure to any individual customer. At June 30, the Company had 31 customers owing Rs. 5.58 billion. The Company has made allowances, where necessary, for potential losses on credits extended.

For trade receivables and contract assets, the Company uses a simplified approach to calculate expected credit losses (ECLs). A provision matrix has been established based on the Company's historical credit loss experience, adjusted for forward-looking factors specific to the debtors and the economic environment. This matrix is based on the segments that exhibit similar patterns, such as geography and customer type.

The management estimates the recoverability of trade receivables on the basis of financial position and past history of its customers based on the objective evidence that it may not receive the amount due from the particular customer. The provision is written off by the Company when it expects that it cannot recover the balance due. Any subsequent repayments in relation to amounts written off are credited directly to profit or loss.

The credit quality of bank balances that are neither past due nor impaired can be assessed by reference to external credit ratings (if available) or to historical information about counterparty default rate:

The Company follows an effective cash management and planning process to ensure availability of funds and to take appropriate actions for new requirements. (d) Fair value of financial instruments

Fair value is an amount for which an asset could be exchanged, or a liability settled, between knowledgeable willing parties in an arm's length transaction. Consequently, differences may arise between the carrying value and the fair value estimates.

Fair value is determined on the basis of objective evidence at each reporting date. The management assessed that the fair values of financial assets and financial liabilities approximate to their carrying amounts largely due to the short-term maturities of these instruments.
